

Mrs Julie Broom MBACP

About me

I am a fully qualified, professional counsellor and am a registered member of the BACP (British Association of Counselling and Psychotherapy) I hold a post qualifying diploma in working with children and young people. I am fully insured and receive regular clinical supervision, which ensures a good quality and safe service for your child. I am trained to listen without judging, and to help children and young people to sort out their thoughts and feelings in relation to whatever is concerning them.

Sessions

Your child's counselling sessions will be incorporated into their school day.

WEEKLY

Sessions will be offered weekly for up to 50 minutes. I am unable to amend sessions If your child is absent from school on the counselling day .

REVIEW

Sessions will be reviewed every 6 weeks.

I am committed to working under the BACP's ethical framework for the counselling profession.

A confidential service for children and young people, that combines talking therapy with the child's natural language of creativity, metaphor and play

"Building a secure attachment with the young person is my priority. It is important that the environment is a nurturing, safe space for the young person to explore"
